

Mishael Ondieki is the Founder and a Principal of US Africa Opportunity Network (www.usafon.com), US Africa Chamber of Commerce Network (www.usaccon.com), and the African Real Estate Journalism Mentorship Program, that has an active presence in 18 countries in Sub-Saharan Africa. Mishael has worked closely with the African Consulates and embassies in the US and several US Government agencies to foster in international trade between the US and African.

At USAFON, our economic development office assists foreign companies to plan and launch into USA markets and vice versa. Mishael is a business owner, advisor, and journalism mentor with several decades of experience in advising several media houses in Africa. He has also done special correspondence for the Voice of America (VOA).